vs.	)	REQUEST TO TRAVEL
	)
CHRIS W. HOELSCHER	)
Defendant.	)
_____	)

Chris Wayne Hoelscher was sentenced to three years probation on August 9, 2004 for the offense of Health Care Fraud, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1347. Conditions of probation include that he not commit another federal, state, or local crime; not unlawfully possess a controlled substance and refrain from unlawful use of a controlled substance; drug testing is waived; not possess a firearm or other dangerous weapon; serve six months home confinement without electronic monitoring under the home detention component and abide by all the requirements of the program, and pay all or part of the costs of the program based on ability to pay as determined by the probation officer; during the period of home confinement, be restricted to his residence at all times except for employment, education, religious services, medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment, attorney visits, court appearances, court-ordered obligations or other activities pre-approved by the probation officer. Mr. Hoelscher was also ordered to pay restitution in the amount of $1,328.68, a fine in the amount of $5,000, and a special assessment fee of $100. On October 29, 2004, conditions of probation were modified to include that the defendant serve six months home confinement with electronic monitoring under the home detention component and shall sign and abide by all the requirements of the program. Further, he was ordered to pay the costs of the electronic monitoring program, and during the term of home confinement, remain at his place of residence at all times except for: employment; education; religious services; medical, substance abuse, or mental health treatment; attorney visits; court appearances; court-ordered obligations; or other activities pre-approved by the probation officer. The Court ordered that the defendant be given credit for time served under home confinement.

On August 10, 2004, Mr. Hoelscher satisfied his restitution, fine, and special assessment fee. Thereafter, he was allowed to return to Bloomington, Illinois, where he maintains his residence. He also maintains a chiropractic company called Eastland Chiropractic in Bloomington, Illinois. On April 4, 2006, U.S. Probation Officer Patrick Howard verified that Mr. Hoelscher satisfied the terms of his home confinement, and is in compliance with all other conditions of probation.

On March 30, 2006, Mr. Hoelscher submitted a request to travel to Port Canaveral, Florida, and then on to a cruise through the Caribbean Islands. The purpose of the travel is to celebrate with his wife, Debra Hoelscher, their 25th wedding anniversary. Mr. Hoelscher is requesting to travel from April 29, 2006 to May 7, 2006. He will travel to Orlando, Florida and Port Canaveral, Florida, where he will board the cruise ship, Mariner of the Seas. The cruise will begin on May 1, 2006 to Cococay, Bahamas; Charlotte Amalia; St. Thomas; and Philipsburg, St. Maarten. The cruise ship will end upon the ship's return to Port Canaveral, Florida, on May 7, 2006. This Officer supports Mr. Hoelscher's travel request for the dates noted above and seeks Court approval.

Respectfully Submitted,

FRANK MICHAEL CRUZ
